Mr. Stan V. Henkels,
1112 Walnut St.

My Dear Sir:—

I have concluded to offer for sale through you my collection of "AMERICANA". As you are aware it is widely known throughout the country and during the last two or three years I have loaned from it for use by authors of books and proprietors of magazines over Five Hundred pictures. This has involved great labor and much attention by me personally.

These requests are being renewed constantly in different directions and it has become an impossibility, with the pressure of professional and public duty, to adequately care for it and reply to the numerous demands, for essentially it makes me a curator of a public institution without the leisure to attend to it.

Will you not therefore at your convenience have the pictures catalogued, properly advertised and sold?

It would be fortunate if some institution could acquire them, as they must grow in value and in national interest with every year, illustrating the history of our country as nothing else can do, and it is now impossible to reconstruct another collection containing precisely the same subjects.

Yours Very Sincerely,

Hampton L. Carson.

REMARKS

This catalogue embraces the first portion of the Hampton L. Carson Collection of Engraved Portraits, Views, and Autograph Letters, it being the largest and most important collection in America owned by one individual, and with a world-wide reputation on account of the many great rarities contained therein. The collection is the result of over thirty years' studious research and careful selection, and as Mr. Carson was one of the earliest collectors, there will naturally be found in it many items of the greatest and most important historical interest. Being well known to the dealers throughout the Continent and America, he was constantly the recipient of the treasures gathered by them in their quest for rarities, he usually having the first choice, and through this means he has been enabled to gather together not only a collection of rare Engraved Portraits and Views but the very choicest impressions to be had of such rarities, and in this aggregation is included the magnificent collection gathered by Mr. Clarence S. Bement, of Philadelphia, which Mr. Carson purchased in its entirety several years ago, as well as that of the late Frederick D. Stone, Librarian of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

With the exception of the magnificent collection of Portraits of English Legal Characters, and his truly beautiful and Unique Collection of Portraits and Scenes of, and relating to, Napoleon, the collection is of a purely American character, commencing with Portraits, Views, and Maps relating to the earliest discovery of America up to and including our great Civil War. Of these we might mention that of the officers in the American Revolution (French, English, German, and American), which has been the envy of collectors both far and near ; the Jefferson Portraits, which stand unrivalled both as to their number and rarity; the Franklin Portraits, which are unsurpassed and the catalogue of which will fill a long-felt want by furnishing a guide for future collectors ; the Presidents of the United States, members of the Continental Congress, Signers of the Declaration, Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Officers in the Wars of 1812 and 1848 and the War of the Confederacy; the Foreign Royalty (sovereigns holding dominion over America), which is of the utmost importance and is replete with magnificent Proof Mezzotintos by the most noted Engravers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries; the American Land and Naval Battles, being the most important ever brought together ; the Political Caricatures which have long been considered the richest and largest grouping in the country; the Maps and Plans and Views from the first inception in relation to America, to the War of 1861; the Autograph letters of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence,

Members of the Continental Congress, Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Generals of the Revolution and Civil War, and Officers of the United States Navy; the extra illustrated books embracing the lives of American statesmen, and historical events, all combine to make this the most noteworthy event of the times.

The Washington Portraits embraced in this catalogue are only those engraved on copper and steel, and of which there are many different states of the plate. They are so rich in rarities, and the collection so well known, that it is hardly necessary for us to enter into any lengthy praise of the same, except to mention that it includes, with few exceptions, copies of all that are enumerated in Baker's "Engraved Portraits of Washington"; and many, very many, of the utmost rarity unknown to Baker (as well as an unusually large collection of colored and plain Lithographs, which will appear in another catalogue), and being St. Memin's own personal collection of Proof Mezzotintos of the portraits he engraved, mounted by him personally, and named in his autograph. They include 761 different portraits of mostly noted American characters who flourished during and shortly after the American Revolution, and compose a collection which could never be gotten together again; being Profile Portraits engraved in the most beautiful manner in the form of circular medallions, and all correct likenesses, having been drawn from the living features by the physionotrace and reduced by the pantograph, and drawn from the life by St.-Memin, with the physionotrace, in black crayon, on pinkish paper, a little over life-size.

We feel that some reason should be given for the defacing of the reproductions in this catalogue. When it is taken into consideration the beautiful manner in which they are gotten up, had we not defaced them, the catalogue would have been sought after by many for the reproductions alone, and as great expense has been incurred in the printing (having followed and virtually reprinted with great additions Baker's "Engraved Portraits of Washington") we could scarcely afford to have the catalogue reach the hands of any except those who have the intention of purchasing at the sale; consequently we hope that the delicate manner of the defacing will not prevent the reproductions from conveying an adequate idea of the rarity of the originals.

ENGRAVED PORTRAITS OF WASHINGTON

Described According to Baker

C. W. PEALE TYPE.

1. HIS EXCELL: G: WASHINGTON ESQ: LATE COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Bust in uniform, head to right. Oval, with border in a rectangle. Mezzotinto.

Height 7 8-16 inches; width 5 12-16 inches.

Painted and Engrav'd by C. W. Peale 1787. Baker No. 1. Excessively rare.

First state, being an artist's proof before all letters, with an outside margin 14-16 inches wide. The only known copy in this condition; clean as the day of issue. See facsimile.

2. THE SAME. Second state, with the title in the border.

Height 7 5-16 inches; width 5 12-16 inches.

Fine copy. Cut oval.

3. GEN. WASHINGTON. Full bust in uniform, head to left, the right hand gloved, thrust in the breast. Circle, with border, upon a pyramidal base, in a rectangle engraved to represent stonework. Line.

Height 5 13-16 inches; width 3 11-16 inches.

Wm Angus Sc. Published Sepr 23, 1785, by J. Fielding Pater Noster Row. Baker No. 3.

Proof before all letters with fine wide margin. Exceedingly scarce in this condition.

4. ANOTHER COPY. Lettered impression.

5. G. WASHINGTON. Three-quarter length, in the uniform of a colonel in the Virginia service. Mixed.

Height 4 13-16 inches; width 3 12-16 inches.

Painted by A. Dickinson. Engraved by J. C. Buttre. Baker No. 4.

Etched proof before the plate was finished.

6. THE SAME. Fine proof on India paper, full margin.

7. " " " " full margin.

8. WASINGTON Généralissime des Etats Unis de L'Amerique. Full bust in uniform, full face. Oval, with border in an ornamented rectangle. In the oval to the left a tree, the branches of which spread over and behind the head, the title in a tablet beneath the oval. Line.

Height 13 8-16 inches; width 10 inches.

Dessiné par Bounieu d'apres un Tableau fourni par M. le Marquis de la Fayette. Gravé par Chevillet. "Galérie des hommes Illustres vivans." Baker No. 6. Rare.

9. THE SAME. Without the inscription at top, "Galérie des hommes Illustres vivans."

10. THE SAME. Choice proof before the inscription, with the engraver's name scratched in. Excessively rare.

11. THE SAME, with different title; viz., Washington Généralissimi des Américains, Libérateur des Etats-Unis Contemporain et ami du Général Lafayette.

Dessiné par Bounieu d'apres un Tableau fourni par M. le Marquis de la Fayette. Gravé par Chevillet. Chez Porlier, Graveur Editeur, Rue des Cinq Diamans, No. 8.

The above four lots form an unique collection of the various states of this rare print. We doubt if there is such another set in this country, or, indeed, in Europe.

12. GENERAL WASHINGTON. Bust in uniform, full face. Oval. Line.

Height 3 11-16 inches; width 3 inches.

T. Cook del et sculp. Publish'd as the Act directs Aug. 21, 1783, by S. Bladon. Baker No. 7. Very rare.

Although the title does not agree with Baker, nor the size exactly, it is, however, the same print the difference being in the wording of the title.

13. WASHINGTON AT THE AGE OF TWENTY-FIVE. Bust in uniform, head to right. Oval. Line.

Height 2 13-16 inches; width 2 5-16 inches.

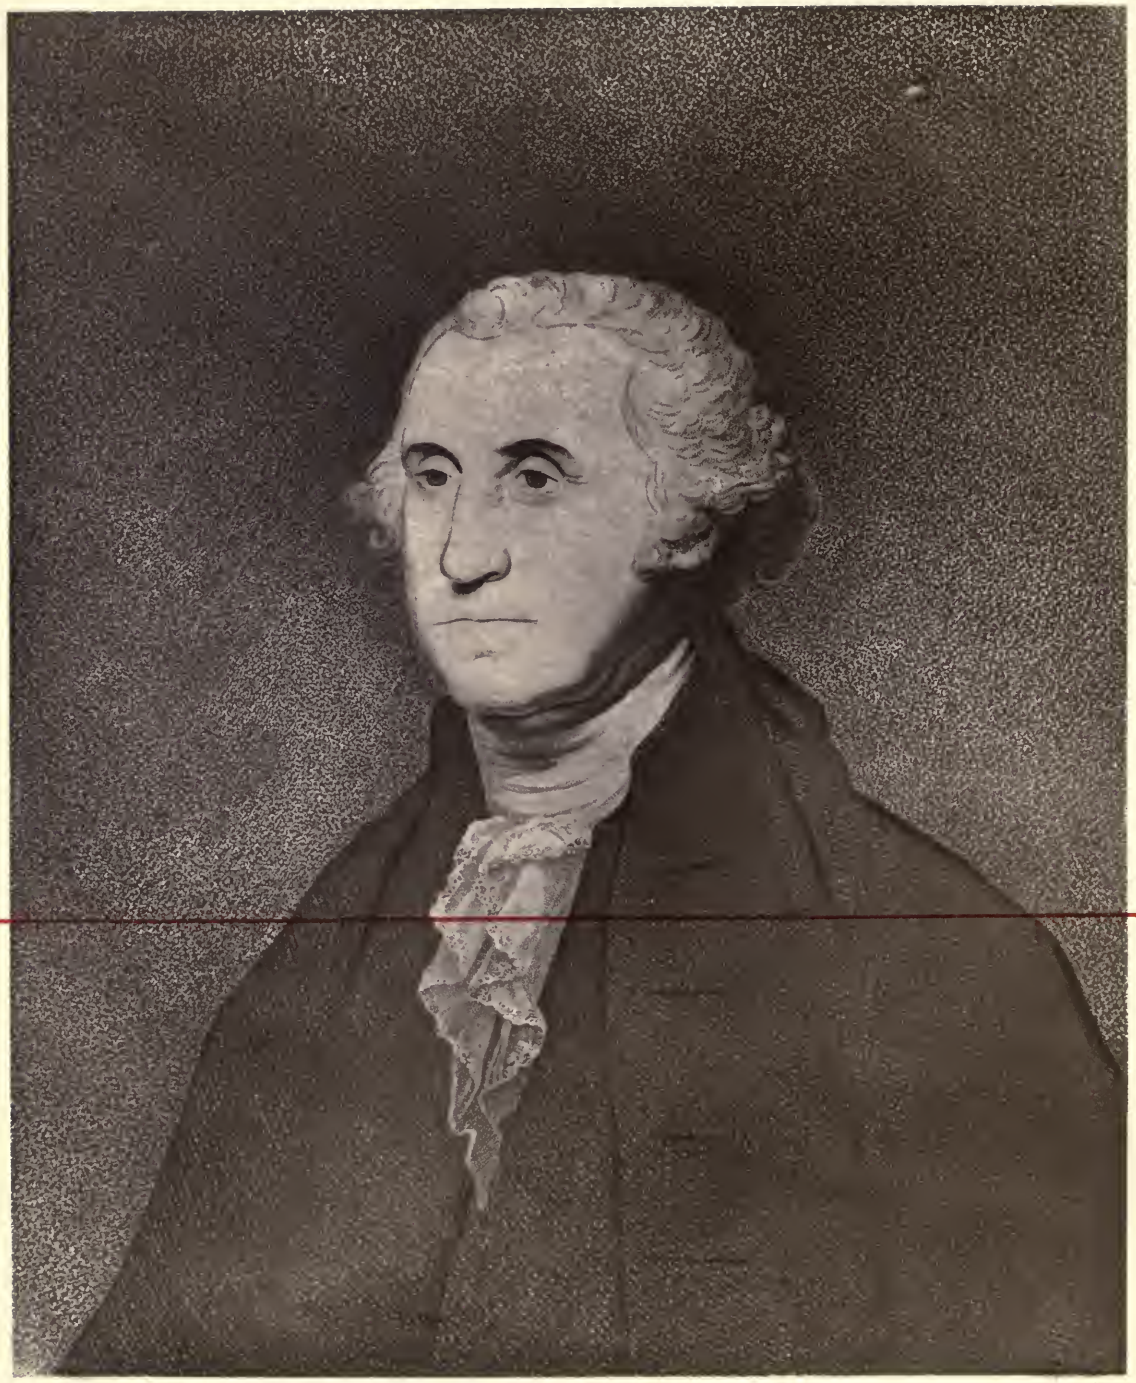
J. De Mare, from a miniature on ivory presented by Washington to his niece Harriet, and now belonging to her daughter's family (copyright 1851). Baker No. 8.

India proof.

14. THE SAME. Choice proof before all letters.

15. " " Proof before the inscription.

16. " " Ordinary impression.



GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON.

Published by H. S. Tanner, Philadelphia

FACSIMILE OF LOT No. 19, REDUCED

17. GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON. Born Feb. 22, 1732, in Westmoreland County, Virginia, and died Dec. 14, 1799, at Mount Vernon. Full bust, head to left. Stipple.

Height 11 4-16 inches; width 9 inches.

R. Peale Pinx, D. Edwin, Sc. Baker No. 9. Fine and brilliant impression. Very rare.

Baker says: "From the lettering of this plate, it is usually considered to have been executed from the first portrait by Rembrandt Peale, painted at the age of seventeen. But this, we think, is an error, and if the engraving is a close rendering of its original, incline to the opinion that the lettering is incorrect, and that it is really after one of Charles Willson Peale's later portraits."

18. THE SAME, but with the publisher's address. "Published by J. Savage 1800." Small shot-hole in the forehead. Very rare.

19. GENERAL GEORGE WASHINGTON. Full bust, head to left. Stipple, printed in colors.

Height 12 15-16 inches; width 10 1-16 inches.

R. Peale Pinxt, D. Edwin Sculpt. Printed in colors by H. Charles. Published by H. S. Tanner, Philadelphia. Baker No. 10. Very rare.

A superb impression, printed in colors and of excessive rarity. See facsimile.

20. THE SAME. Plain impression, with address of the publisher cut off, but a very good and sharp impression.

21. G. WASHINGTON. 1772, Æt 40. Three-quarter length, in the uniform of a colonel in the Virginia service. Vignette. Stipple.

Height 5 4-16 inches; width 3 8-16 inches.

C. W. Peale. J. B. Forrest. Original in possession of G. W. P. Custis, Esq. New York, G. P. Putnam & Co. Baker No. 11.

India proof. Presentation copy from G. P. Putnam & Co. to Rembrandt Peale.

22. THE SAME. Proof before all letters on India paper.

23. GENERAL WASHINGTON. Full length in military costume, leaning upon a field-piece to the left, a riding-switch in his right hand; the left, in which is his hat, rests upon a horse fore-shortened at the right. In the extreme distance to left upon a hill, a large building with cupola. Mezzotinto.

Height 19 12-16 inches; width 13 14-16 inches.

Peel pinxit Philadelphia, Stotdard delint. Londini. J. Brown Executit, V. Green fecit, Mezzotinto Engraver to the King of Great Britain and the Elector Palantine. From an Original Picture in the Possession of Mr. Brown: Published by him April 22d 1785, and Sold at No. 10, George Yard, Lombard Street, London. Baker No. 12. Brilliant, open letter proof, with scratched title and fine margin. Extremely rare.

Baker says: "Different from any other full-length executed by Peale, and although ascribed to him by the lettering of the plate, and as having been painted at Philadelphia, its authenticity is extremely doubtful."

24. THE SAME. Mezzotinto printed in colors, with engraved title, in open letter.

Magnificent brilliant impression, and probably unique, being printed in colors.

25. BUST IN UNIFORM, FULL FACE. Oval of a single line. (The Etching of the Print of St. Aubin Baker No. 31.)

Height 4 8-16 inches; width 4 inches.

Halder Sculp. Baker No. 13.

(Essai sur la Physiognomonie par Jean Gaspard Lavater, Imprimé à La Haye 1781–86.)

26. THE SAME. Without the Engraver's name.

27. LE GENERAL WASHINGTON, COMMENDANT EN CHEF DES ARMEES AMERICAINES, NE EN VIRGINIE EN 1733. Bust in uniform, head to right. Oval, with border in a rectangle, resting upon a tablet, in which is a representation of the surrender at Yorktown, inscribed "Iournée mémorable du 19 Octobre 1781 à York en Virginié." Title within the border. Line.

Height 7 13-16 inches; width 5 8-16 inches.

Gravé d'après le Tableau de N. Piehle peint d'après nature à Philadelphie en 1783. Baker No. 14. Rare.

Brilliant impression with full margin.

28. GENL. WASHINGTON. Bust in uniform, head to right. Oval, with border in a rectangle, beneath which is a representation of the surrender at Yorktown, inscribed "Event of the 19th of Oct^{r}. 1781, at Yorktown in Virginia." Line.

Height 7 11-16 inches; width 5 8-16 inches.

The English artist has followed the lines of the print in the French original after a picture by Piehle on account of the remarks of Mr. Lavater. Published by T. Holloway & The other Proprietors, May 21, 1794. Baker No. 15. Very rare.

Brilliant impression with full margin.

29. BUST IN UNIFORM. Head to right. Oval, with three lines for a narrow border, suspended by a ring, above a tablet containing a representation of the surrender at Yorktown. Outline.

Height 4 10-16 inches; width 3 12-16 inches.

Tom. 6 Pl. 339. Page 219. Baker No. 16. Extremely rare.

30. THE SAME. But with different lettering. "Tom 6. Pl. 338." First state. Extremely rare.

A CIRCULAR LETTER,

FROM HIS EXCELLENCY

GEORGE WASHINGTON,

COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMIES OF THE

UNITED STATES of AMERICA;

Addreſſed to the GOVERNORS of the ſeveral STATES, on his reſigning the Command of the Army, and retiring from public Buſineſs.

(CIRCULAR.)

Head Quarters, Newburgh, June 18, 1783.

SIR,

THE great object, for which I had the honour to hold an appointment in the ſervice of my country, being accompliſhed, I am now preparing to reſign it into the hands of Congreſs, and return to that domeſtic retirement, which, it is well known, I left with the greateſt reluctance; a retirement for which I have never ceaſed to ſigh through a long and painful abſence, in which (remote from the noiſe and trouble of the world) I meditate to paſs the remainder of life, in a ſtate of undiſturbed repoſe; but, before I carry this reſolution into effect, I think it a duty incumbent on me to make this my laſt official communication, to congratulate you on the glorious events which Heaven has been pleaſed to produce in our favour, to offer my ſentiments reſpecting ſome important ſubjects, which appear to me to be intimately connected with the tranquility of the United States, to take my leave of your Excellency as a public character, and to give my final bleſſing to that country, in whoſe ſervice I have ſpent the prime of my life; for whoſe ſake I have conſumed ſo many anxious days and watchful nights, and whoſe happineſs, being extremely dear to me, will always conſtitute no inconſiderable part of my own.

Impreſſed with the livelieſt ſenſibility on this pleaſing occaſion, I will claim the indulgence of dilating the more copiouſly on the ſubject of our mutual felicitation. When we conſider the magnitude of the prize we contended for, the doubtful nature of the conteſt, and the favourable manner in which it has terminated; we ſhall find the greateſt poſſible reaſon for gratitude and rejoicing; this is a theme that will afford infinite delight to every benevolent and liberal mind, whether the event in contemplation be conſidered as a ſource of preſent enjoyment, or the parent of future happineſs; and we ſhall have equal occaſion to felicitate ourſelves on the lot which Providence has aſſigned us, whether we view it in a natural, a political, or moral point of light.

The citizens of America, placed in the moſt enviable condition, as the ſole Lords and Proprietors of a vaſt tract of continent, comprehending all the various ſoils and climates of the world, and abounding with all the neceſſaries and conveniencies of life, are now, by the late ſatisfactory pacification, acknowledged to be poſſeſſed of abſolute freedom and independency; they are from this period to be conſidered as the actors on a moſt conſpicuous theatre, which ſeems to be peculiarly deſigned by Providence for the diſplay of human greatneſs and felicity: Here they are not only ſurrounded with every thing that can contribute to the completion of private and domeſtic enjoyment; but Heaven has crowned all its other bleſſings, by giving a ſurer opportunity for political happineſs, than any other nation has ever been favoured with. Nothing can illuſtrate theſe obſervations more forcibly than a recollection of the happy conjuncture of times and circumſtances, under which our Republic aſſumed its rank among the nations.—The foundation of our Empire was not laid in a gloomy age of ignorance and ſuperſtition, but at an epocha when the rights of mankind were better underſtood and more clearly defined, than at any former period: Reſearches of the human mind after ſocial happineſs have been carried to a great extent; the treaſures of knowledge acquired by the labours of philoſophers, ſages and legiſlators, through a long ſucceſſion of years, are laid open for uſe, and their collected wiſdom may be happily applied in the eſtabliſhment of our forms of government. The free cultivation of letters, the unbounded extenſion of commerce, the progreſſive refinement of manners, the growing liberality of ſentiment, and, above all, the pure and benign light of Revelation, have had a meliorating influence on mankind, and increaſed the bleſſings of ſociety. At this auſpicious period the United States came into exiſtence as a nation, and if their citizens ſhould not be completely free and happy, the fault will be entirely their own.

Such is our ſituation, and ſuch are our proſpects; but notwithſtanding the Cup of Bleſſing is thus reached out to us, notwithſtanding happineſs is ours, if we have a diſpoſition to ſeize the occaſion, and make it our own, yet it appears to me, there is an option ſtill left to the United States of America, whether they will be reſpectable and proſperous, or contemptible and miſerable as a nation; this is the time of their political probation; this is the moment when the eyes of the whole world are turned upon them; this is the moment to eſtabliſh or ruin their national character for ever; this is the favourable moment to give ſuch a tone to the federal Government, as will enable it to anſwer the ends of its inſtitution; or, this may be the ill-fated moment for relaxing the powers of the Union, annihilating the cement of the Confederation, and expoſing us to become the ſport of European politics, which may play one State againſt another, to prevent their growing importance, and to ſerve their own intereſted purpoſes. For, according to the ſyſtem of policy the States ſhall adopt at this moment, they will ſtand or fall; and, by their confirmation or lapſe, it is yet to be decided, whether the Revolution muſt ultimately be conſidered as a bleſſing or a curſe;—a bleſſing or a curſe, not to the preſent age alone, for with our fate will the deſtiny of unborn millions be involved.

With this conviction of the importance of the preſent criſis, ſilence in me would be a crime; I will therefore ſpeak to your Excellency the language of freedom and of ſincerity, without diſguiſe. I am aware, however, thoſe who differ from me in political ſentiments may, perhaps, remark, I am ſtepping out of the proper line of my duty; and they may poſſibly aſcribe to arrogance or oſtentation, what I know is alone the reſult of the pureſt intention; but the rectitude of my own heart, which diſdains ſuch unworthy motives; the part I have hitherto acted in life, the determination I have formed of not taking any ſhare in public buſineſs hereafter; the ardent deſire I feel, and ſhall continue to manifeſt, of quietly enjoying in private life, after all the toils of war, the benefits of a wiſe and liberal Government, will, I flatter myſelf, ſooner or later, convince my countrymen, that I could have no ſiniſter views in delivering with ſo little reſerve the opinions contained in this addreſs.

There are four things which I humbly conceive are eſſential to the well-being, I may even venture to ſay, to the exiſtence of the United States as an independent power.

1ſt. An indiſſoluble union of the States under one federal head.

2dly. A ſacred regard to public juſtice.

3dly. The adoption of a proper peace eſtabliſhment. And, 4thly. The prevalence of that pacific and friendly diſpoſition among the people of the United States, which will induce them to forget their local prejudices and policies, to make thoſe mutual conceſſions which are requiſite to the general proſperity, and, in ſome inſtances, to ſacrifice their individual advantages to the intereſt of the community.

Theſe are the pillars on which the glorious fabric of our independency and national character muſt be ſupported.—Liberty is the baſis—and whoever would dare to ſap the foundation, or overturn the ſtructure, under whatever ſpecious pretexts he may attempt it, will merit the bittereſt execration, and the ſevereſt puniſhment, which can be inflicted by his injured country.

On the three firſt articles I will make a few obſervations; leaving the laſt to the good ſenſe and ſerious conſideration of thoſe immediately concerned.

Under the firſt head, although it may not be neceſſary or proper for me in this place to enter into a particular diſquiſition of the principles of the union, and to take up the great queſtion which has been frequently agitated, whether it be expedient and requiſite for the States to delegate a larger proportion of power to Congreſs, or not; yet it will be a part of my duty, and that of every true patriot, to aſſert, without reſerve, and to inſiſt upon the following poſitions.—That unleſs the States will ſuffer Congreſs to exerciſe thoſe prerogatives they are undoubtedly inveſted with by the Conſtitution, every thing muſt very rapidly tend to anarchy and confuſion. That it is indiſpenſible to the happineſs of the individual States, that there ſhould be lodged, ſomewhere, a ſupreme power to regulate and govern the general concerns of the confederated Republic, without which the union cannot be of long duration.

That there muſt be a faithful and pointed compliance on the part of every State with the late propoſals and demands of Congreſs, or the moſt fatal conſequences will enſue.—That whatever meaſures have a tendency to diſſolve the union, or contribute to violate or leſſen the ſovereign authority, ought to be conſidered as hoſtile to the Liberty and Independency of America, and the authors of them treated accordingly.—And laſtly, that unleſs we can be enabled by the concurrence of the States to participate of the fruits of the Revolution, and enjoy the eſſential benefits of civil ſociety, under a form of government ſo free and uncorrupted, ſo happily guarded againſt the danger of oppreſſion, as has been deviſed and adopted by the Articles of Confederation, it will be a ſubject of regret, that ſo much blood and treaſure have been laviſhed for no purpoſe; that ſo many ſufferings have been encountered without a compenſation, and that ſo many ſacrifices have been made in vain. Many other conſiderations might here be adduced to prove, that without an entire conformity to the ſpirit of the Union, we cannot exiſt as an independent power. It will be ſufficient for my purpoſe to mention but one or two, which ſeem to me of the greateſt importance. It is only in our united character, as an empire, that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, or our credit ſupported among foreign nations. The treaties of the European Powers, with the United States of America, will have no validity on a diſſolution of the Union. We ſhall be left nearly in a ſtate of nature, or we may find by our own unhappy experience, that there is a natural and neceſſary progreſſion from the extreme of anarchy to the extreme of tyranny; and that arbitrary power is moſt eaſily eſtabliſhed on the ruins of liberty abuſed to licentiouſneſs.

As to the ſecond article, which reſpects the performance of public juſtice, Congreſs have, in their late addreſs to the United States, almoſt exhauſted the ſubject; they have explained their ideas ſo fully, and have enforced the obligations the States are under to render complete juſtice to all the public creditors, with ſo much dignity and energy, that, in my opinion, no real friend to the honour and independency of America can heſitate a ſingle moment reſpecting the propriety of complying with the juſt and honourable meaſures propoſed; if their arguments do not produce conviction, I know of nothing that will have greater influence, eſpecially when we recollect that the ſyſtem referred to, being the reſult of the collected wiſdom of the Continent, muſt be eſteemed, if not perfect, certainly the leaſt objectionable of any that could be deviſed; and that, if it ſhall not be carried into immediate execution, a national bankruptcy, with all its deplorable conſequences, will take place before any different plan can poſſibly be propoſed or adopted; ſo preſſing are the preſent circumſtances, and ſuch is the alternative now offered to the States.

The ability of the country to diſcharge the debts, which have been incurred in its defence, is not to be doubted. And inclination, I flatter myſelf, will not be wanting; the path of our duty is plain before us; honeſty will be found, on every experiment, to be the beſt and only true policy. Let us then, as a nation, be juſt; let us fulfil the public contracts which Congreſs had undoubtedly a right to make for the purpoſe of carrying on the war, with the ſame good faith we ſuppoſe ourſelves bound to perform our private engagements. In the mean time let an attention to the chearful performance of their proper buſineſs, as individuals, and as members of ſociety, be earneſtly inculcated on the citizens of America; then will they ſtrengthen the hands of government, and be happy under its protection. Every one will reap the fruit of his labours; every one will enjoy his own acquiſitions, without moleſtation, and without danger.

In this ſtate of abſolute freedom and perfect ſecurity, who will grudge to yield a very little of his property to ſupport the common intereſts of ſociety, and enſure the protection of government? Who does not remember the frequent declarations at the commencement of the war, That we ſhould be completely ſatisfied, if at the expence of one half, we could defend the remainder of our poſſeſſions? Where is the man to be found, who wiſhes to remain indebted for the defence of his own perſon and property to the exertions, the bravery, and the blood of others, without making one generous effort to repay the debt of honour and of gratitude? In what part of the Continent ſhall we find any man, or body of men, who would not bluſh to ſtand up, and propoſe meaſures purpoſely calculated to rob the ſoldier of his ſtipend, and the public creditor of his due? And were it poſſible that ſuch a flagrant inſtance of injuſtice could ever happen, would it not excite the general indignation, and tend to bring down upon the authors of ſuch meaſures, the aggravated vengeance of Heaven? If, after all, a ſpirit of diſunion, or a temper of obſtinacy and perverſeneſs ſhould manifeſt itſelf in any of the States; if ſuch an ungracious diſpoſition ſhould attempt to fruſtrate all the happy effects that might be expected to flow from the union; if there ſhould be a refuſal to comply with requiſitions for funds to diſcharge the annual intereſt of the public debts, and if that refuſal ſhould revive all thoſe jealouſies and produce all thoſe evils which are now happily removed; Congreſs, who have in all their tranſactions ſhewn a great degree of magnanimity and juſtice, will ſtand juſtified in the ſight of God and man! And that State alone, which puts itſelf in oppoſition to the aggregate wiſdom of the Continent, and follows ſuch miſtaken and pernicious councils, will be reſponſible for all the conſequences.

For my own part, conſcious of having acted, while a ſervant of the public, in the manner I conceived beſt ſuited to promote the real intereſts of my country; having, in conſequence of my fixed belief, in ſome meaſure, pledged myſelf to the army, that their country would finally do them complete and ample juſtice, and not wiſhing to conceal any inſtance of my official conduct from the eyes of the world, I have thought proper to tranſmit to your Excellency the incloſed collection of papers, relative to the half-pay and commutation granted by Congreſs, to the officers of the army; from theſe communications, my decided ſentiment will be clearly comprehended, together with the concluſive reaſons which induced me, at an early period, to recommend the adoption of this meaſure in the moſt earneſt and ſerious manner. As the proceedings of Congreſs, the army, and myſelf, are open to all, and contain, in my opinion, ſufficient information to remove the prejudice and errors which may have been entertained by any, I think it unneceſſary to ſay any thing more, than juſt to obſerve, that the reſolutions of Congreſs, now alluded to, are as undoubtedly and abſolutely binding upon the United States, as the moſt ſolemn acts of confederation or legiſlation.

As to the idea, which, I am informed, has, in ſome inſtances, prevailed, that the half-pay and commutation are to be regarded merely in the odious light of a penſion, it ought to be exploded for ever: That proviſion ſhould be viewed, as it really was, a reaſonable compenſation offered by Congreſs, at a time when they had nothing elſe to give to officers of the army, for ſervices then to be performed: It was the only means to prevent a total dereliction of the ſervice: It was a part of their hire, I may be allowed to ſay, it was the price of their blood, and of your independency; it is therefore more than a common debt, it is a debt of honour; it can never be conſidered as a penſion, or gratuity, nor cancelled until it is fairly diſcharged.

With regard to the diſtinction between officers and ſoldiers, it is ſufficient that the uniform experience of every nation of the world, combined with our own, proves the utility and propriety of the diſcrimination. Rewards in proportion to the aids the public draws from them are unqueſtionably due to all its ſervants. In ſome lines, the ſoldiers have perhaps generally had as ample compenſation for their ſervices, by the large bounties which have been paid them, as their officers will receive in the propoſed commutation; in others, if, beſides the donation of land, the payment of arrearages of cloathing and wages (in which articles all the component parts of the army muſt be put upon the ſame footing) we take into the eſtimate the bounties many of the ſoldiers have received, and the gratuity of one year's full pay, which is promiſed to all, poſſibly their ſituation (every circumſtance being duly conſidered) will not be deemed leſs eligible than that of the officers. Should a further reward, however, be judged equitable, I will venture to aſſert, no man will enjoy greater ſatisfaction than myſelf, if an exemption from taxes for a limited time (which has been petitioned for in ſome inſtances) or any other adequate immunity or compenſation be granted to the brave defenders of their country's cauſe: But neither the adoption or rejection of this propoſition will, in any manner, affect, much leſs militate againſt, the act of Congreſs, by which they have offered five years full pay, in lieu of the half pay for life, which had been before promiſed to the officers of the army.

Before I conclude the ſubject of public juſtice, I cannot omit to mention the obligations this country is under to that meritorious claſs of veterans, the non-commiſſioned officers and privates, who have been diſcharged for inability, in conſequence of the reſolution of Congreſs, of the 23d of April, 1782, on an annual penſion for life: their peculiar ſufferings, their ſingular merits and claims to that proviſion need only to be known, to intereſt the feelings of humanity in their behalf: nothing but a punctual payment of their annual allowance can reſcue them from the moſt complicated miſery; and nothing could be a more melancholy and diſtreſſing ſight, than to behold thoſe who have ſhed their blood, or loſt their limbs in the ſervice of their country, without a ſhelter, without a friend, and without the means of obtaining any of the comforts or neceſſaries of life, compelled to beg their daily bread from door to door. Suffer me to recommend thoſe of this deſcription, belonging to your State, to the warmeſt patronage of your Excellency and your Legiſlature.

It is neceſſary to ſay but a few words on the third topic which was propoſed, and which regards particularly the defence of the Republic. As there can be little doubt but Congreſs will recommend a proper peace eſtabliſhment for the United States, in which a due attention will be paid to the importance of placing the militia of the Union upon a regular and reſpectable footing; if this ſhould be the caſe, I ſhould beg leave to urge the great advantage of it in the ſtrongeſt terms.

The militia of this country muſt be conſidered as the palladium of our ſecurity, and the firſt effectual reſort in caſe of hoſtility: It is eſſential, therefore, that the ſame ſyſtem ſhould pervade the whole; that the formation and diſcipline of the militia of the Continent ſhould be abſolutely uniform; and that the ſame ſpecies of arms, accoutrements, and military apparatus, ſhould be introduced in every part of the United States. No one, who has not learned it from experience, can conceive the difficulty, expence, and confuſion, which reſult from a contrary ſyſtem, or the vague arrangements which have hitherto prevailed.

If, in treating of political points, a greater latitude than uſual has been taken in the courſe of this Addreſs, the importance of the criſis, and the magnitude of the objects in diſcuſſion, muſt be my apology: It is, however, neither my wiſh nor expectation, that the preceding obſervations ſhould claim any regard, except ſo far as they ſhall appear to be dictated by a good intention: Conſonant to the immutable rules of juſtice; calculated to produce a liberal ſyſtem of policy, and founded on whatever experience may have been acquired by a long and cloſe attention to public buſineſs. Here I might ſpeak with more confidence, from my actual obſervations; and if it would not ſwell this letter (already too prolix) beyond the bounds I had preſcribed myſelf, I could demonſtrate to every mind, open to conviction, that in leſs time, and with much leſs expence than has been incurred, the war might have been brought to the ſame happy concluſion, if the reſources of the Continent could have been properly called forth; that the diſtreſſes and diſappointments which have very often occurred, have, in too many inſtances, reſulted more from a want of energy in the Continental Government, than a deficiency of means in the particular States; That the inefficacy of meaſures, ariſing from the want of an adequate authority in the ſupreme power, from a partial compliance with the requiſitions of Congreſs in ſome of the States, and from a failure of punctuality in others, while they tended to damp the zeal of thoſe who were more willing to exert themſelves, ſerved alſo to accumulate the expences of the war, and to fruſtrate the beſt concerted plans; and that the diſcouragement occaſioned by the complicated difficulties and embarraſſments, in which our affairs were by this means involved, would have long ago produced the diſſolution of any army, leſs patient, leſs virtuous, and leſs perſevering, than that which I have had the honour to command. But while I mention thoſe things, which are notorious facts, as the defects of our federal conſtitution, particularly in the proſecution of a war, I beg it may be underſtood, that as I have ever taken a pleaſure in gratefully acknowledging the aſſiſtance and ſupport I have derived from every claſs of citizens; ſo ſhall I always be happy to do juſtice to the unparalleled exertions of the individual States, on many intereſting occaſions.

I have thus freely diſcloſed what I wiſhed to make known before I ſurrendered up my public truſt to thoſe who committed it to me: The taſk is now accompliſhed; I now bid adieu to your excellency, as the Chief Magiſtrate of your State; at the ſame time I bid a laſt farewell to the cares of office, and all the employments of public life.

It remains, then, to be my final and only requeſt, your Excellency will communicate theſe ſentiments to your Legiſlature, at their next meeting; and that they may be conſidered as the legacy of one who has ardently wiſhed, on all occaſions, to be uſeful to his country, and who, even in the ſhade of retirement, will not fail to implore the divine benediction upon it.

I now make it my earneſt prayer, that God would have you, and the State over which you preſide, in his holy protection; that he would incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a ſpirit of ſubordination and obedience to Government; to entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another, for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large, and particularly for their brethren who have ſerved in the field; and finally, that he would moſt graciouſly be pleaſed to diſpoſe us all to do juſtice, to love mercy, and to demean ourſelves with that charity, humility, and pacific temper of the mind, which were the characteriſtics of the Divine Author of our bleſſed religion; without an humble imitation of whoſe example, in theſe things, we can never hope to be a happy nation.

I have the honour to be, with much eſteem and reſpect,

SIR,

Your Excellency's moſt obedient and moſt humble ſervant,

G. WASHINGTON.

This pair of prints are of the greatest rarity, and "are the first portraits of Genl. Washington and Mrs. Washington executed by a professional engraver in America. The mezzotinto by Peale, advertised for sale in 1780, although the first in point of time, must be considered in a different light, as Peale was not a professional engraver, the plates he produced being often his own designs." The heading to a sheet entitled "A Circular Letter from his Excellency George Washington, Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America, addressed to the Governors of the several States, on his resigning the Command of the Army, and retiring from public Business." "Head Quarters, Newburgh, June 18, 1783." Line.

Height 4 1-16 inches; width 3 7-16 inches, including outline border.

F. Cook del et Sculp. London: Printed for S. Bladon, No. 13, Paternoster Row.

Size of sheet: Height 18 11-16 inches; width 13 10-16 inches.

Excessively rare. Although this is undoubtedly the same portrait described by Baker, No. 7, from the brilliancy of the impression, and the letter-press accompanying it, we believe this to be one of the earliest impressions, as it was no doubt engraved for this purpose, and that the impression described by Baker is a later one from the same plate, to which was added the publisher's address. See facsimile.

116. GEORGE WASHINGTON, ECUYER GÉNÉRAL DE L'ARMÉE ANGLO-AMÉRIQUAINE NOMMÉ DICTATEUR PAR LE CONGRÉS EN FEVR. 1777.

GEORGE WASHINGTON ECUYR. GÉNÉRAL AND COMMANDER EN CHIEF OF THE CONTINENTAL ARMY IN AMERICA. Full figure in uniform and cocked hat, on horseback, with drawn sword in right hand extended to the left; head to right. The horse is rearing. Encampment, soldiers, and buildings in the back distance. Artillery surrounded with flags and laurel between either title. Colored by hand. Line.

Height 12 10-16 inches; width 8 13-16 inches.

A Paris Chez Crepy rue St. Jacques a St. Pierie pres la rue de la Parcheminerie.

Of the most extreme rarity and probably unique. The artist, being a German, has shown his appreciation of the character of Washington, as in the picture he has both clothed him, and given him the countenance of Frederick the Great. See facsimile.

I. M. Probst pinx sc. I. Mich Probst exc A. V.

A fine impression of this excessively rare portrait, and probably unequalled in any collection.

118. HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE WASHINGTON ESQR. COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE AMERICAN ARMIES.—THE PROTECTOR OF HIS COUNTRY, THE SUPPORTER OF LIBERTY, AND THE BENEFACTOR OF MANKIND.* MAY HIS NAME NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. Full figure in uniform and cocked hat, on horseback; the right arm extended to the left with drawn sword. The horse is rearing and advancing to

left. An encampment in the background. Circle with border surrounded with laurel leaves. The title in the border.

Etching rudely colored.

Diameter 11 7-16 inches.

Excessively rare. The only copy that has come under my observation.

119. GENERAL WASHINGTON. Full figure in uniform and cocked hat, on horseback, with extended sword in right hand. Horse advancing to left. On the same sheet with full length figure of "General Washington's reitende Leibgarde" and "Die independent company Chef General Washington." Over the figures is a Union Jack and an American flag, and on the other half of sheet a map of "Nord America."

Line.

Height 6 9-16 inches; width 5 13-16 inches. (Size of Washington portrait only.)

Probably unique, and with full margin. The only copy that has come under my observation.

Baker only saw one copy, and that had not the engraver's address. This is the only copy I ever saw. It was pasted originally as an advertisement of the Maverick's, on the outside front cover of an early New York Directory; about 1810.

144. BUST IN UNIFORM. In profile to right. Oval. Lithograph.

Height 2 14-16 inches; width 2 2-16 inches.

On the back of this print, in eighteen irregular lines, is the following autograph facsimile: "THE GODLIKE WASHINGTON died 14th Decr 1799. All America in tears. The within is the best likeness I have seen. The hair is of his own head. This will increase its value with time. It is my earnest request this may be preserved to succeeding generations. The hair was presented to me by Majr Billings Con. Army. E. Watson, certificate. This may certify that the within hair was Enclosed by Genl Washington in a Letter to me dated Newburgh June '83, as his own hair. Jany 1, 1800. Andr Billings." Baker No. 79.

This drawing is a close copy of the etching by Wright, and it is probable that the above inscription and certificate may have been written on the back of the impression from which it was made.

Painted & Engraved by E. Savage. Baker No. 117.

243. GEORGE WASHINGTON Esq^R. President of the United States of America. Nearly full length, sitting, legs crossed, at a table to the right, upon which is a hat with a large rosette; head three-quarters to right. A large chart upon the table is held by the right hand; the left arm rests upon it, the hand hanging over in front; the background is formed by a curtain, which, drawn at the right, reveals the sky and the lower portion of a pillar. Mezzotinto.

Height 18 inches; width 14 inches.

E. Savage pinx. et sculp. From the Original Portrait Painted at the request of the Corporation of the University of Cambridge in Massachusetts. Published June 25, 1793 by E. Savage No. 54 Newman Street. Baker No. 118. Framed.

This copy is considered by connoisseurs to be absolutely the most brilliant and beautiful impression of this rare print known, with a fine wide margin. It certainly is the finest copy I ever saw, and is prized by Mr. Carson as one of the gems of his collection.

243½. GEORGE WASHINGTON President of the United States of America. Nearly full length sitting, legs crossed, at a table to the right. (Same description as the preceding print.)

Mezzotinto.

Height 18 inches; width 13 14-16 inches.

From the original Portrait Painted at the request of the Corporation of the University of Cambridge in Massachussetts. Baker No. 119.

This is a different Plate from the preceding one, although very similar. It is not so well executed, and slight differences are visible throughout, the most marked, perhaps, being the Rosette on the hat, which is entirely different. It is supposed to be by Savage. It is exceedingly scarce. Baker only saw two impressions. This is a very good one.

Height 18 6-16 inches; length 24 6-16 inches.

Painted and Engrav'd by E. Savage. Philadelphia. Published March 10th 1798, by E. Savage & Robt. Wilkinson No. 58 Cornhill London. Baker No. 120.

Beautiful brilliant impression, with the full margin. Probably a finer copy could not be found, as this is perfectly free from spots and the margin has not suffered by being framed, as is the case with nearly all copies.

244½. THE SAME. Open letter proof.

245. ———— Portrait of George Washington, from the above described print. Cut square.

280. THE SAME. Choice proof before all letters, with the address of the publisher scratched in, "10th 1795 by A. C. De Poggi New Bond S^{t}. London."

This superb brilliant proof, with wide margin, is no doubt one of, if not the earliest impression known; it will be perceived that the date is 1795, a year earlier than the regular impressions.

281. THE SAME. With variation in the address of the publisher. "London Published by A. C. De Poggi, N^{o}. 91, New Bond Street."

Brilliant impression.

282. THE SAME. With variation in the address of the publisher, it being printed under the title, instead of immediately under the print, as in the first described. Beautiful mellow brilliant impression.

283. THE SAME. Without the address of the publisher.

The above five engravings by Cheesman form a remarkable collection, and I doubt if it could be duplicated. Any of them are rare, the proof especially so. Here we have five distinct different states, all printed from the one plate, at close intervals, the variations being mainly in the address of the publisher.

WALTER ROBERTSON TYPE.

343. GEORGE WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. Full bust in uniform, with black neckerchief, head to right. Oval, with narrow scroll border. On the point of a straight sword, which extends from the top of the oval, is a liberty cap, and across the middle the word "Libertas" surrounded by a laurel wreath; rays diverge from the wreath, losing themselves in the clouds. Beneath the oval an eagle in clouds, with a long ribbon in his beak, the ends over his wings (which are outspread), inscribed "E Pluribus Unum." At each side, flags and palm branches reaching to the top, the whole inclosed with two slight lines. Stipple.

Height 11 13-16 inches; width 9 3-16 inches.

Painted by W. Robertson. Jo^{n} Ja^{s} Barralet Invenit 1795. Engrav'd by R. Field. Published by Walter Robertson, Philadelphia, & New York 1st August 1795. Baker No. 169.

This Print is so rare that Baker only saw two impressions. This copy has been cut off slightly at the top, and is slightly stained in the upper and lower right-hand corners. It is, however, a very pretty impression. See Plate.

Height 11 14-16 inches; width 9 inches.

Robertson Pinxt. Walker Execudit. Baker No. 170. Very rare.

With the exception of the star, in place of the sword above the oval, this is a close copy of the preceding Print. Brilliant Impression

345. THE SAME. Beautiful Brilliant Impression, but cut down close to the oval at top, and to the shape of the clouds at bottom, but with the full inscription and address of the publisher. "Published March 25, 1797, by E. Walker, N^{o} 7, Cornhill."

345½. GENERAL WASHINGTON. PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Bust in uniform, with black neckerchief, head slightly to right. 421. HIS EXCELLENCY GEORGE WASHINGTON LIEU^{T} GEN^{L} OF THE ARMIES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Three-quarter length in uniform, sitting, the order of the Cincinnati on the left breast; a sword lies in the right forearm, and a chart in the hand, the left hand resting upon that portion of it which is upon a table. A curtain drawn up at the right, reveals an encampment in the distance. In the lower margin, an eagle displayed, with shield and motto, "E Pluribus Unum." Stipple.

Height 11 3-16 inches; width 8 10-16 inches.

F. Bartoli Pinx^{t} D. Edwin Sc. "Respectfully Dedicated to the Lovers of their Country and Firm Supporters of its Constitution." Published by D. Kennedy 228 Market S^{t} Philad^{a}. Baker No. 216.

Magnificent Brilliant Impression with fine wide margin, and a very rare state, from the fact of it having the Publisher's address, which is found on but few copies, and which was not on the copy from which Baker got his description.

422. WASHINGTON SACRED TO MEMORY. Three-quarter length in uniform, seated. The same as the preceding plate, with the addition of a border 11-16 inch in width, the title in a tablet in the upper part. Beneath the portrait and let into the border a funeral urn, supported by two female figures, and surrounded by war emblems. Upon the top of the urn a sword and field-glass crossed, and on a medallion, in three lines, "O. B. Dec. 14, 1799, Æt 68." Stipple.

Height 11 3-16 inches; width 8 10-16 inches.

F. Bartoli pinxt. D. Edwin Sc. Revised by T. J. Barralet. Published by D. Kennedy 228 Market St. Philada. Baker No. 217. Very rare.

The only perceptible difference between this and the preceding print is the cuff on the right arm, which is not so wide, and in the sword, which reveals a portion of the blade between the hilt and the cuff. Beautiful brilliant impression, with wide margin.

423. WASHINGTON. Bust, head to left. Oval medallion, the upper one of a group of four in an ornamented Vignette. The others contain the portraits of Adams, Jefferson, and Madison. Stipple.

628. GEORGE WASHINGTON ESQ^R LATE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Full length, standing, right hand upon a scroll upon a table to the left, inscribed "Declaration of Independence." To the right, an armchair, and in the background a curtain, drawn up at the left, shows some pillars and the open sky. Mezzotinto, colored.

Height 18 8-16 inches; width 13 12-16 inches.

Engraved from an Original Drawing by Savage. Publish'd by I. Le Petit, Latimer House, Hammersmith near London. Baker No. 375. Excessively rare.

Only one impression had come under the notice of Baker, and that without the publisher's address, which had probably been cut off, as well as portions of the margin; which would account for this copy not quite agreeing in size. It has the Stuart head, and the general characteristics of the figure and accessories resemble the "Tea Pot Portrait." This is a very fine clear impression and has been colored contemporaneously.

REMBRANDT PEALE TYPE.

858. WASHINGTON. Bust, head to right. Vignette. Lithograph.

Height 16 inches; width 14 10-16 inches.

From the Original Portrait Painted by Rembrandt Peale. Drawn on Stone by Rembrandt Peale. Lith. of Pendleton, 9 Wall St. Copyright secured. Baker, page 171–173.

Excessively rare, so much so that Baker only saw an imperfect copy. This is a remarkably fine copy with a full margin. Mr. Baker wrongly describes the "Patriæ Pater" Portrait as the one referred to by Peale in his communication to Wm. Dunlap (Arts of Design, vol. 2, p. 57) in which Peale says: "I was among the first of the Artists who employed this admirable method of multiplying original drawings. My first attempt in New York was a head of Lord Byron, and a female head from a work of Titian. In 1826, I went to Boston, and devoted myself for some time to lithographic studies, and executed a number of portraits and other subjects, and finally, a large drawing from my portrait of Washington, for which I obtained the silver medal from the Franklin Institute at Philadelphia, in 1827. Unfortunately, the workmen by some neglect, destroyed this drawing on the stone, when but a few impressions were taken." The Portrait above described is the one really referred to by Peale, a fact which Mr. Baker discovered after the publication of "The Engraved Portraits of Washington," and up to the time of Mr. Baker's death he never saw but the imperfect copy herein mentioned; this is the only perfect copy that has come under my observation.

THE GREAT ST. MEMIN COLLECTION OF ENGRAVED PORTRAITS.

The Artist's Own Collection of Proofs, All Mounted, and Named in His Autograph, Consisting of 761 Portraits of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and Other Noted Americans.

925. St Memin's own personal collection of proofs of 761 Portraits Engraved from the life by him, all neatly mounted by himself, and named in his autograph, including Portraits of Washington (2), Jefferson, Madison, Genl. Gates, Gen. Bloomfield, W. Bradford, De Witt Clinton, Winthrop Sargent, Genl. Jas. Clinton, Commodore Decatur, Genl. Henry Lee, Commodore Perry, &c., including also Portraits of the artist and members of his distinguished family.

In reference to the Artist and this collection Mr. Baker says: "Charles Balthazar Julien Fevret de Saint Memin, to whom we are indebted for the last portrait of Washington taken from life, was born at Dijon, France, on the 12th day of March, 1770, and quite early in life showed an aptitude for design, and displayed considerable mechanical talent.

"Destined for the profession of arms, he entered as a cadet at the military school in Paris April 1, 1784, was appointed supernumerary Ensign in the following year, and Ensign April 27, 1788. His sympathies at the outbreak of the French Revolution were with the Royal family, and the army of the Princes being formed, he joined it, and served in that organization until it was disbanded, at which time he was entitled to the rank of lieutenant-colonel, which was afterwards (Jan 29, 1817) conferred upon him by Louis XVIII, taking grade from May 1, 1792. While with the army, he turned his attention, during his leisure hours, to drawing and painting.

"He came to America from Switzerland, where he had learned to gild and carve in wood, landing in Canada in 1793, and from thence going to New York, in which city he learned to engrave.

"Towards the end of the last century, a Frenchman named Chrétien had invented a machine, by means of which he copied the human profile mathematically accurate. This invention, termed Physionotracy, had great success. Saint Memin knowing of the popularity of this process, practiced also by Queneday and others, determined to introduce it into this country, and therefore applied himself to the construction of such a machine, according to his understanding of it, and also made a pantograph.

"His profiles were produced of life-size by the Physionotrace (of which one of Genl. Washington is described in lot No. 926) and finished in crayon; the pantograph reduced them to the size required for the plate, the portrait being drawn on the copper, in a circle of a little more than two inches in diameter. Having thus obtained the perfect outline, the details were worked up by the graver, the shading being finished by the roulette, the latter tool made by a machine of his own invention.

"These profile portraits, produced very rapidly, number about eight hundred and twenty, and are interesting, most of them being likenesses of the prominent personages of the time, Saint Memin travelling to all the principal cities of the Union for that purpose, his summers being passed with the family at Burlington, N. J., where he executed the engravings. In this he was assisted at first by a fellow-exile, M. de Valnuit, and the plates produced previous to 1797, when Valnuit returned to France, bear both their signatures. These plates became the property of the different sitters, Saint Memin retaining only a few impressions for his private collection.

"While in Philadelphia in 1798, Saint Memin secured a profile of Washington, who was in that city during the month of November, engaged in organizing the army for the threatened war with France. This drawing was not engraved at the time like the others, being, as it would appear, an undertaking of his own, and was retained by him. It was purchased after his death, from his nephew and heir, and is now in the possession of J. Carson Brevoort, Esqr., of Brooklyn, N. Y. It is a bust in uniform, half life-size, drawn in crayon on tinted paper, is strikingly characteristic, and bears every evidence of originality. The engraving by Dudensing is a fair rendering of this interesting profile, the last portrait of Washington taken from life.

"Saint Memin made a short visit to France in 1810, and returned finally in 1814. At the time of his decease, which occurred June 23, 1852, he was Director of the museum at Dijon, to which office he had been appointed July 27, 1817.

"After his return to France, Saint Memin arranged the impressions retained by him of his different plates in two sets, adding the names of the originals, which being done from memory, are not always correct. These sets purchased at the same time as the above mentioned drawing (November, 1859) were brought to this country. One of them is in the 'Corcoran Gallery of Art,' Washington, and the other is owned by Elias Dexter, of New York, who published Photographic Copies of them in 1862.

"All these prints except two of Washington, Wm. Bradford, Doctor Thornton, Thos. Jefferson, Mrs Law, B. Ferrand, Mrs Brockholst Livingston, Miss Burges, the Artist's Mother, Sister, and his own, are of the same size. One of the Washington's is marked 'Houdon' (the drawing, life-size, is also owned by Mr. Brevoort) and the other is found in the drawing above referred to. The latter, an oval, quite small, is beautifully executed, and it is presumed was not outlined on the plate in his usual manner."

This set we are now describing is the one owned by Elias Dexter, and was purchased by Mr. Carson from his American agent several years ago. We have deemed it advisable to publish the list of portraits, with such identification as is afforded by the work published by Mr. Dexter.

Mr. Carson's set is much larger than the one in the Corcoran Gallery.

ST.-MEMIN'S ORIGINAL PHYSIONOTRACE OF WASHINGTON.

926. WASHINGTON. The Original Portrait of Genl Geo Washington. Profile to left, laureated, taken from the living features with a physionotrace by M. De St.-Memin; in crayon, on light pink paper.

Height 18 inches; width 10 8-16 inches.

Framed and glazed.

A magnificent specimen of St.-Memin's original crayon drawing, and an unique portrait from life of Washington, exhibiting, as it must (being taken by the Physionotrace), a correct rendition of the profile features of that great man. It formerly belonged to Mr. Clarence S. Bement, and it was from this portrait that Mr. Max Rosenthal made his beautiful mezzotinto portrait which is herein described. See facsimile.

927. St.-Memin Collection of Portraits, consisting of Seven Hundred and Sixty Medallion Portraits, Principally of Distinguished Americans, Photographed by J. Gurney and Son, of New York, from proof impressions of the original copper-plates Engraved by M. De St.-Memin, from drawings taken from life by himself, during his exile in the United States from 1793 to 1814; to which are prefixed a Memoir of M. De St.-Memin and Biographical notices of the Persons whose Portraits constitute the collection, compiled from authentic and original sources by the Publisher.

Folio sheets. New York, Published by Elias Dexter 1862.

These portraits were photographed from the collection of proof impressions from the original copper plates, described under Lot No. 925 in this catalogue.

943. THE SAME. Printed in tint, and with the printer's address "Published 22nd Feby. 1816 by B Tanner Engraver No 74 South Eighth Street, Philadelphia."

944. GEO. WASHINGTON. Full figure in uniform, upon a pedestal, in the middle distance of a design in the form of an arch with obelisks on either side, upon which is inscribed "Liberty," "Independence." In the right hand, an open scroll inscribed "Friends and Fellow citizens"; the left, upon a sword at his side. Army and navy emblems on each side of pedestal, upon which is the title. Over the statue on the top of the arch an eagle with outspread wings with a flowing ribbon in its beak, upon which is the motto "E Pluribus Unum"; underneath the eagle sixteen tablets upon which are inscribed the names of the States. In the immediate foreground, in front of the statue, a large funeral urn upon a pedestal, on which in a tablet are the words "Sacred to Patriotism." In the background a view of Bowling Green, New York.

Height 23 9-16 inches; width 21 6-16 inches.

(Designed and Drawn by Chas. Buxton. M. D. Tiebout sculp.) Baker No. 407. (The head is after Stuart.)

Exceedingly scarce. Very fine impression, but cut close to print on bottom and sides.

MEMORIAL DESIGNS NOT DESCRIBED BY BAKER.

This catalogue embraces the second portion of the Hampton L. Carson Collection of Engraved Portraits, etc., and includes a series of Portraits of three of the most important factors in our struggle for independence, viz., Thomas Jefferson, whose wise sayings and teachings enlightened the American people on the fallacy of despotic government and instilled into their hearts the fact that all men were born free and equal; Benjamin Franklin, the great philosopher and patriot, from whose teachings the whole world has benefited as much as from that of any other person, whose diplomacy won over to us the sympathy and help of the French nation, without which our independence would not have been attained, and whose statesmanship steered the barque of the young Republic into the safe harbor of freedom and self-government; and Gilbert Mottier de la Fayette, the brave and noble-hearted Frenchman, whose generous impulse led him to sacrifice home ties, to assist a struggling people to attain that freedom, for which he suffered so much, to gain for his own country. These three names, Jefferson, Franklin, Lafayette, are therefore fit to be associated; they formed the three sides of the triangle which enclosed the great firmament of the Declaration of Independence, from which scintillates the light from many other stars that brighten the atmosphere of this great and glorious country.

It is the first time that any considerable collection of the portraits of either of these patriots has been offered the public, and this catalogue gives a list of such portraits, described after the admirable manner of the late W. S. Baker. The collections are as nearly perfect as many years of research and a great expenditure of money could make them possible, and this is the first attempted list published, forming, as it does, a guide for collectors, as well as giving a full and complete description of the many rarities contained therein.

I have avoided to a great extent the use of superlative adjectives in describing the rarity of these portraits; as so many instances occurred when their use could be properly employed, I decided that it would become monotonous, and have therefore only occasionally made mention of their rarity, when a portrait of the most superlative rarity came under my observation. A glance at the reproductions will give the reader an idea of the quality of the collection, and at the same time act as an incentive for a careful perusal of the whole catalogue.

ENGRAVED PORTRAITS OF THOS. JEFFERSON.

REMBRANDT PEALE TYPE.

1086. THOMAS JEFFERSON Esq^R. Vice President of the United States. Full bust, nearly full face, with white neckerchief and turned-down coat collar. Stipple.

Height 12 4-16 inches; width 9 1-16 inches.

R. Peale Pinx D. Edwin sc.

Beautiful brilliant impression of this excessively rare print, and a magnificent specimen of Edwin's best work.

1087. THOMAS JEFFERSON Esq^R. President of the United States. Fully described in preceding print. Stipple.

Height 12 4-16 inches; width 9 1-16 inches.

R. Peale Pinx. D. Edwin, sc.

Brilliant impression, with full margin; evidently an impression from the same plate as the preceeding print, the only difference being in the wording.

1088. THOMAS JEFFERSON. Full bust, head slightly to left, white neckerchief, turned-down coat collar. Oval. Stipple.

Height 4 6-16 inches; width 3 10-16 inches

Engraved by Harrison Jun^r

Fine impression; exceedingly scarce.

1089. THOMAS JEFFERSON. President of the United States. Full bust, head three-quarters to right, white neckerchief, turned-up collar to coat. Stipple.

Height 10 10-16 inches; width 8 7-16 inches.

R. Peale Pinx^t C. Tiebout sculp^t

"We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure their rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; That whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness.—Declaration of Independence." Philadelphia, Published by M. Carey No 118 Market St., Feb. 20*th* 1801. Copy right Secured.

Fine and brilliant impression; exceedingly scarce.

1090. THOMAS JEFFERSON. Full bust, head three-quarters to right, white neckerchief, turned-down coat collar. Oval. Stipple.

Height 8 12-16 inches; width 6 14-16 inches

R. Peale Pinxt. C. Tiebout Sculpt.

Choice brilliant impression of the "Large head oval." Very rare.

1091. THOMAS JEFFERSON, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S. Full bust, head three-quarters to right, white neckerchief, turned-down coat collar. Oval. Stipple.

Height 5 10-16 inches; width 4 8-16 inches.

Tiebout sc Published by D. Kennedy Nº 228, Market St.

A fine brilliant impression of the very rare "Small head oval"; with full margin.

1092. THE SAME. Rudely colored, and with portion of title and publisher's address cut off.

1093. THOMAS JEFFERSON. PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. Full length, head three-quarters to right; the right hand extended, holding a document entitled "The Declaration of Independence," etc., which partly rests on a table upon which is a bust of Franklin, some books, and a cloth tucked up, revealing the leg; to the left an electrical apparatus, underneath which is a terrestrial globe; in the background large pillars and drapery. Stipple.

Height 20 3-16 inches; width 13 inches.

Published by A Day Nº 38, Chesnut Street Philada.

An unusually fine impression of this very rare print, which, although there is no lettering to denote it, is the work of Tiebout.

1094. THE SAME. Variation in publisher's address: "Published by W. H. Morgan Philada."

1095. THE SAME.

Peale Del. Tiebout Sc. Pub by William Smith Nº 702 Sº 3d St Phila.

1096. THE SAME.

This portrait was evidently first published without the artists' names, which were inserted after the plate came into the possession of Mr. Smith, as all impressions bearing his name show much wear of the plate.

1097. JEFFERSON. Full length, head three-quarters to right; the right hand resting on a terrestrial globe which stands upon a table on which is a document entitled "Independence of America," inkstand, books, etc.; in the lower right-hand are also some books resting against the leg of the table; to the left an armchair; in the background a pillar and a curtain, which, drawn aside, partly reveals a bookcase and books. Stipple.

Height 19 8-16 inches; width 12 15-16 inches.

1098. THE SAME. A more modern impression.

1099. T. JEFFERSON. Bust, head slightly to left. Oval in a rectangle in which is a tablet with the inscription.

THE THOS. JEFFERSON PORTRAIT
FROM LOT 1239

ALBUM OF MEZZOTINTO PORTRAITS BY ST. MEMIN.

A Gift from the Artist.

1239. THO. JEFFERSON. Full bust, in profile to right, with queue. Oval medallion. Mezzotinto.

Height 2 14-16 inches; width 2 6-16 inches.

St. Memin del^{t} et sc^{t} .

This portrait of Thos. Jefferson, to use the words of the late President Garfield, "is one of the most exquisite Engravings I ever saw, and a most beautiful portrait." It is the first one of Sixteen Portraits, mounted in an Album and Engraved by St. Memin, all being named in his Autograph. The other Portraits are Peter Jefferson, father of the President (called George by St. Memin); Kilian K. Van Rensslaer, Member of Congress from Albany; Felix Constant de Boisgerard, of Charleston, S. C.; Thos. Newton, of Richmond, Virginia; Dr. Alex Baron, of Charleston, S. C.; Capt. Jno. Cassin, of the U. S. Navy; J. H. Carr, officer in the U. S. Marines; Gabriel Duval, Justice of the Supreme Court of the U. S.; Hugh Nelson, of Fredericksburg, Va.; Mrs. Eliza Nelson, wife of Jas. H. Imley, of New Jersey (called Mm. Eliza Wilson by St. Memin); James Madison, father of the President (called Wm. Madison by St. Memin); Com. Oliver Hazard Perry (called Theo. Hunt by St. Memin); John F. Delaplaine, of New York; N. Morton, of Richmond, Va.; and St. Memin's Own Portrait. These are all neatly mounted Proofs, on separate Pages, with their names written underneath, and an Index of the whole in the handwriting of the Artist, who has through fault of memory wrongly named a few which I have corrected as above noted. The Title-page is also in the Autograph of the Artist, and reads:

"Gagne—pain
d'un exilé
AUX ETATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE.
de 1793 à 1814

Dijon 1842.

Le nombre des portraits de ce genre dessinés et gravés par M^{r} de S^{t} M. dans les prin—cipales villes des Etats-Unis d'Amerique, éléve à 760."

On the fly-leaf is St. Memin's Autograph presentation of the Album to his friend, as follows:

"Offert
A Monsieur G. Peignot
comme un faible hommage
du sincère, respectaeux et trés affectueuse dévouement du depinateur et graveur
Fevret de S^{t} Mémin."

The Album is neatly bound in red morocco Gilt, by P. Pralon of Dijon, according to the order of the Artist, of whom a more interesting memento could not be had, as he evidently selected the portraits contained therein as the best examples of his work.

See Plate.
